The map above gives a general orientation to the City of Panama.

The major transportation hub in Panama City is the Albrook Terminal, next to the Albrook Mall. This is where all buses and the metro originate. For more info, see the entry for “Transportation – Buses & Subway” and “Transportation—Taxis & Uber”

The city is divided into numerous neighborhoods. The map above identifies some of them; such as Bella Vista (G8), Los Angeles (D10), and Punta Paitilla (I10). You will see these neighborhood designations printed on buses and in the detailed entries of this guide. Having a general idea of these neighborhoods will help you guesstimate reasonable taxi fares, read the signs on buses and figure out where shops and services are located.

Panama City has five major (mostly east-west) roads. The majority of buses will follow one of these five roads, so if you can identify them here, you will be able to figure out what bus to take to get to a location. From north to south they are:

1. Tumba Muerto (official name Via Ricardo Alfaro, but known to all as Tumba Muerto), begins at E9 in the map above, by the national brewery (Cervezeria Nacional)
2. Avenida Nacional (G5) which becomes the Transistmica at about G6/G7 (again, there are two names: Avenida Simon Bolivar and Transistmica; Transistmica being the one in common usage)
3. Via Espana/Avenida Central. At the eastern end (F16), Via Espana is a two way road. At Via Porras (F11) traffic becomes one way only, east to west (right to left above). It stays one way until Plaza Cinco de Mayo (H5) where it becomes Avenida Central. At its eastern end, Avenida Central is closed to traffic and commonly known as, “the walking street”. After the shopping area of the walking street, Avenida Central opens to cars again and continues to Casco Viejo, J5
4. Calle 50 (for English speakers, pronounced “seen-cuen-tah”) (traffic is one way, west to east, G8 to G14)
5. Avenida Balboa / Cinta Costera, the southernmost road, follows the ocean front (I5 to H10) where it continues as Via Israel (H10 to H14) finally turning into Via Cincuentenario (H14) at Panama Viejo.

3D Printer	3-D-Printer 398-8121 / 398-8122 www.TheMakerz.com Centro Comercial Plaza Paitilla, #28 on Via Italia in Punta Paitilla. May be useful for fabricating small plastic parts.

Acupuncture	Various. Go to El Dorado district (Tumba Muerto bus, get off at the large sign for Rey. Cross the street and walk back to the circular building decorated with pictures of cakes and sweets. Turn right and continue to the next intersection, passing a casino/gentleman's club. Look for pain centers here and around the corner.) See also Centro Medico Omega under “Doctors, General” See also “Chinese Medicines/Herbs”. The proprietor there can offer referrals.
Agents	=> see “Canal/Ship Agents”
Air Conditioning Repairs	Narval Marine (listed under “Repairs”) Douglas Antonio Mendieta (listed under “Refrigeration - Repairs”)
Air Lines / Airports	Panama City has two airports: Tocumen (PTY) on the eastern side of town for most international flights and Albrook or Aeropuerto Marcos A. Gelabert (PAC) on the western side of town for mostly domestic flights (including flights to the Las Perlas and Bocas del Toro). DOMESTIC AIRLINES Air Panama 316-9000 Note: Aeroperlas stopped operating November, 2012. As of this edition, they remain non-operational. INTERNATIONAL AIRLINES Copa Airlines 227-0116 (Panama’s international airline a partner with United Airlines). Several other airlines fly out of Tocumen International Airport, including American Airlines, Spirit, etc. You can verify which airlines are servicing this airport by going to www.tocumenpanama.acro/
Airplane (Private)	Doriano Bizzoni 6634-8725 dorianobs@hotmail.com One can also go to the Albrook airport (Aeropuerto Marcos A. Gelabert) to inquire to what private companies are currently available for flights.
Alcohol (for cooking stoves)	Discovery Center (listed under “Hardware Stores”) sells gallon cans of Sunnyside Denatured Alcohol for Alcohol Appliances and Marine Stoves. Look in the paint section with the thinners, etc. For small quantities, try El Machetazo , under “Grocery Store, General” NOTE: Alcohol for the stove is called Alcohol Ehilico Desnaturalizado in Panama. If you cannot find it anywhere in Panama (stocks often run down) you can try this two step process: 1. Go to the “Comisión Nacional para el Estudio y la Prevención de los Delitos Relacionados con Drogas, Unidad de Control de Químicos” on Via España, next to the El Rey grocery store, on the same side of the street. Take your passport, boat-certification and crew list. You might also take a photo of the kitchen-stove and have the model name and number. You need to tell them where you will buy the alcohol (see next step for one option). They will give you permission to buy a fixed quantity (one boater was granted permission to buy 30 gallons). 2. Nacional Quizzical S.A. (217-3777) sells large quantities. One pack with 4 plastic bottles of 1 gallon each was priced at $25.25 plus tax in 2011. 2013 UPDATE: One boater reported he called Nacional Quizzical, asked to speak with someone who speaks English and because he told them he was on a boat they waived the requirement for a license. The alcohol was delivered to him at the anchorage and he paid the driver directly. He bought 16 gallons at a price of $9.81 per gallon. All purchases must be made in multiples of 4 gallons which is packaged in four 1 gallon bottles placed in a box.

Another option is to join and post on the Panama Cruisers Facebook Group or ask on a morning VHF net (see “Radio Nets”) or to look / advertise on any of the bulletin boards located in Balboa Yacht Club or the anchorages. Before doing your own crossing, try to volunteer as an line handler on another boat. We find, however, that it is usually more reliable to do these things in person. You DO NOT need to have your lines on the boat when you are measured by the AdMeasurer. You only need to tell them you have rented the required lines and they will be on the boat on the date of transit (Make sure they are on board then!). Fenders: Most canal agents can rent/provide large fenders. Do-it-yourselfers typically get their hands on old tires and wrap them in large black garbage bags. Any person who applies for this type of visa must: (1) enter through an officially authorized maritime post, (2) present their passport and entry visa (if required), (3) must be accessible to be interviewed as well as documents and luggage inspected, (4) must have economic solvency, (5) keep a return ticket to their country. The above is the executive decree, but different offices might apply it in different ways (for example, you will probably not be asked to present a return ticket to your home country, as you will have the means to exit on your boat. The Panama City Maritime (Cruiser) Immigration Office is located in the Albrook Office Center (Google “Albrook Office Center” for map). Get your 72-hour visa and cruising permit first. See details below.

You will need both a Cruising Permit ($185 as of 2023) and a Tourist Stamp in your passport. The Cruising Permit is issued for one year but becomes invalid if you leave the country with your boat.

NOTE: It has been reported that the Panamanian Government is requesting email confirmation of all boats planning to enter Panamanian waters. If anyone has details, please forward to the email noted on the first page of this guide.

NOTE: On the Atlantic side, you can check in at Bocas del Toro, Colon or Shelter Bay. But BE SURE to always get a receipt for any money paid. You may need to show that receipt on the Pacific side to verify you are legal even if you have a stamp in your passport. 2016 Update: Due to conflict between the Panamanian government and the Guna Yala it is not currently possible to check in /out at Porvenir.

International Check In Procedure at Panama City:

Have plenty of copies of passports for each crew member, your original zarpe from previous country, ship's papers, etc. Follow this sequence of steps:

1. Go to either of the two "shore side" immigration officers for your 72 hour temporary visa. There is an immigration officer at Balboa Yacht Club (by the ship rails) as well as one on the upper level of the Duty Free building at the end of the causeway.
2. Go to the Port Captain at Flamenco (on the upper level of the Duty Free building to turn in your zarpe and receive the "Declaracion General" (cost appx $20) and to apply for your cruising permit (cost appx $185).
3. When you have the cruising permit, make a few copies of it and go to the Albrook Mariner's Immigration office (located in the Albrook Office Center on Calle Diego Dominguez) for your visa stamp. You can either take a taxi to Albrook or catch the Ciudad de Saber bus from the bus terminal at Albrook Mall.

Renewal of Cruising Permit & Mariner Visa: The cruising permit will be issued for one year OR until your vessel documentation expires, whichever comes first. It can officially be renewed twice.

Visa Extension: Source: Albrook Immigration (07/2017)

The Mariner Visa is only issued when you check into the country by boat. If you have a Mariner visa and you leave the country by plane or bus your Mariner Visa will be canceled automatically. Entering again you will get a tourist visa that will be good for either 90 or 180 days (depending on your home country). After your allotted days you will need to leave the country for 30 days.

Overstaying Your Visa: If you stay longer than your allotted time, you will have to pay a fine before you are allowed to leave the country. This applies no matter how you are leaving (bus, plane or boat). The fee is $50 per month and must be paid in advance at the main Immigration Office on Tumba Muerto. Once the fee is paid you have a specified number of days to actually leave the country. Be sure to confirm your must leave date.

Checking Out: only two stops are needed for checking out. Total cost about $5.30 USD/Balboa:

Go first to the Port Captain on Flamenco Island (above the Duty Free Shop) to get an international zarpe. Then to either the immigration officer at Balboa Yacht Club or the one at Flamenco. As always, have plenty of copies of everything and your cruising permit. Note that if you arrived by boat and received your mariner visa then flew out of Panama and returned to Panama by plane your mariner visa will be void and you will now have a regular tourist visa. The immigration officer may require you to go to the Albrook Immigration office to check out.

Fuel - Diesel & Gasoline	In all cases, check in advance to verify availability and costs! These sources many times have no stock to sell to transients. Balboa Yacht Club (BYC) – The Balboa Yacht Club no longer sells diesel or gasoline. Flamenco Marina -- Call VHF 10 or 341-0665 to make appointment. Carry diesel and gasoline (both ethanol free) and water. At times, have charged a fee to be at the dock. At times have charged $0.05 per gallon for water. Confirm in advance. The diesel tends to be slightly cheaper at Flamenco than in La Playita Marina. The Fuel dock is very low, dip your fenders onto the water. Do NOT expect the staff to know how to tie up a boat or help with lines and beware of surge in the harbor. La Boca Gas Station - the closest on land service station is in La Boca. You may be required to pay an extra fee of $20USD to bring your boat to the dock. Water is available at no cost. A diesel surcharge may be applied ($30) for diesel purchases less than a set amount (typically 200 gallons). There is also a surcharge for credit card payments. Gasoline is NOT available. Before bringing your boat in, check with them first on availability and current fees. Las Brisas Fuel Barge Miguel WhatsApp +507 6518-7671 Oliver Yacht Services (under “Canal Agents”) will pick up jerry jugs, have them filled and deliver them back same or next day. LAS PERLAS & WESTERN ISLANDS Diesel and gasoline are available on Contadora Island and Isla del Rey via jerry can. In the western islands diesel is available from a barge at Isla Cebaco. There is a fuel dock in Pedregal, the port of David, but it is a 25-mile trip up the estuary from Boca Chica (the only safe entrance of the three) and has to be done with the tides, requiring two days for a sailboat.

There is a large Chinese grocery store in the El Dorado Mall itself, to the back left of the building (NW corner), upstairs. Carries dried mushrooms, canned Chinese vegetables, many types of teas, etc.

There is also a smallish Chinese grocery store across the street from Lung Fung Restaurant. Avenida B is also a Chinatown district. This one specializes in cheap party goods, toys, etc.

For parts and marine supplies brought in under “Yacht in Transit” you will need to use a service which can do custom clearance. Customs: Packages over $100 are subject to import taxes, 3% to 21% depending on the type of item, in addition to the shipping costs. But it bears repeating: the import taxes are OFTEN significantly less than the agency fees associated with “Boat in Transit”. Suggest in all cases that you: Locate the office you will use and speak with them directly, giving an estimate of weight and value of goods to come in. Get any estimates in writing. Get the name and phone number of the person you have spoken with. Keep a record of the tracking number (although some people have experienced a change in tracking number once it has entered Panama).

The Balboa Yacht Club and marinas (La Playita and Flamenco) have good experience with FedEx and DHL-Express. Speak with them first for appropriate address to use. Do not use UPS or USPS.

It cannot be repeated enough, for high value boat parts it is better to hire an experienced ship's agent to coordinate the shipping and handle customs clearance. For lower value items (boat parts or personal items) it is better to use an experienced, low cost shipping service.

La Playita Marina & Anchorage

VHF 9, 314-1730; laplayita@siwireless.com; Carmen Garcia de Paredes is head of the office (and daughter of the owner, they own the Calypso Ferries as well).

Both a free anchorage and a marina. La Playita is located on Punta Culebra and is the one which faces the canal channel and Taboga Island.

Provides dinghy dock service to the anchorage users for a fee. $55 per week in 2017, Mon-Sun, but check in the office or ask on the morning net for current rates. Day rates can apply if you arrive after Monday.

Also available are: snack bar, ice, waste and oil disposal, diesel (no gasoline), water. See also "Fuel - Diesel & Gasoline" for more detailed information.

Important notes for La Playita Anchorage

1. Anchoring is free, but you MUST pay to use the dinghy dock. Do not cheat on their fees or they will close their services for all cruisers. This has happened before.
2. At the dinghy dock, use a long dinghy painter/line (2m+) to allow fellow cruisers to get to their dinghy as well! Make sure no dinghy is trapped under the structure on tides below minus, when the dock is sitting on the rocks.
3. Boats drag because they do not put out enough scope - be prepared and use an anchor alarm and lots of chain. Cruisers experienced at anchoring in La Playita typically have 55-65m (170-200ft) chain in the water and test it by backing up under full power.
4. Check the tides! Calculate your swing room! In low winds and slack tides the anchor chains are not stretched and boats often rest above their anchor.
5. Tides more than 6m/21ft at spring water produce funny currents in different directions so boats are sometimes pointing against each other. In the high season (December - June) you might count 60+ boats, and there is still enough space for everyone (If not everyone tries to be in the first row).
6. The anchorage is totally exposed to wakes caused by canal traffic and the work boats coming out of the marina. Your boat might Rock n Roll extremely. Fix your pots on the stove! (No joke!)
7. A south wind at 15+ knots can cause an uncomfortable wind swell. If a pacific-swell (1-2m) develops (rare) the more sheltered places inside the anchorage turns into a washing machine (you will observe then, that the harbor evacuates the slips). Some very weird waves, steep and up to 1m, sometimes occurred in spring 2016 (Equador-earthquake?), always coming out of the canal, without having a visible source (definitely not caused by ships!).
8. Regarding the little bright blue work boats: If you want to give polite feedback on the seamanship/behavior of the captains, note the time and the name of the vessel as well as what they did good or not so good. The operating company is not under the management of the harbor nor the Calypso ferries and is named: "Two Ocean Services", tel. 308-9100. This company has a separate office in La Playita. The owners are reachable via email: Senora Maggie and Senor Gabriel, ep@epvmarine.com, me@epvmarine.com (Please remember: Cruisers are not the primary income-source around here and we are guests in their country).
9. At night please use dinghy lights to avoid being run down by another boat and please use anchor lights (and additional lights (e.g., solar-garden-lanterns) to make it easier for the working boats to maneuver as well your fellow cruisers to anchor at night (e.g. those coming through the canal, very often arrive after dark)

Las Brisas – Anchorage

Las Brisas faces the city with a clear nice view of the skyline and, frequently, fireworks.

Holding is in mud. Be sure to put out enough chain to account for the tides and squalls and test the holding by backing up with full power. Many boats fail to follow this advice and so it is common for boats to drag during squalls. Calculate for your swing room, note that boats who have been in the same spot have at least 50-65+ m (170-200+ ft) chain in the water (simply ask your neighbor).

The "empty" space near the causeway in front of the dock (S-end of the bay) is the designated turning and waiting area for the commercial traffic - not allowed for anchoring. It might be a very bad idea to try to anchor in the middle of the mooring field, because you do not know on how many blocks or anchors the boats are moored and how the chains are running (some long term boats do have moorings without a mooring ball). (07/2017)

Strong winds from the east will create a choppy, dangerous short, steep wave very quickly.

There is traffic at night so use your anchor light as well dinghy lights!!!

NOTE: sunken sailboat at N 08° 55.309' and W 079° 32.107', some others are still on the causeway rocks.

Dinghies can be tied to the dock on the rocky side, where they might be close to the stones at very low tides - take care! The room is limited. The dock's fendered open side is used by commercial traffic also and can only be used to load/unload. No charge. To make this a safe place you will be asked nicely and firmly by the officials to

Pharmacy	There are several pharmacy chains. Most famous is Arrocha (Albrook Mall, Albrook Plaza, on Transistmica, etc.). The Rey, Riba Smith, and Super 99 and Machetazo grocery stores (listed under “Grocery Store – General”) also have pharmacies. You should be able to purchase most items (including antibiotics) without a prescription. Typically, Arrocha and Riba Smith pharmacies are most picky about requiring prescriptions. Every pharmacy has a cross reference catalog where, if you give them the name of a medicine they do not recognize, they can look it up to find the name of the local brand If you ask for it, many, if not most, pharmacies will give you the Jublilado discount although they may ask to see your passport to prove your age (see also entry “Jubilado Discount”). Farmacia El Boticario Can formulate medicines. It is advisable to carry a sample of any medicine you are trying to refill. Show your boat papers listing you as captain of a ship and you may find it easier to obtain medicines without a prescription. Take the Metro bus toward Albrook. Farmacia Guadalupana will be in the first series of shops on the right after passing under the bridge overpass. (see map page 8)

Propane	Propane tanks cannot be filled inside Panama City: They must be taken to either the town of Chilibre (between Panama City and Colon) or La Chorrera (across the Bridge of the Americas). Panagas and Tropigas are the providers. Propane purchased in Panama will burn dirty, because it is a propane/butane mix, but it is OK to use and will not damage your system. The pressure will be lower through the whole range of temperatures due to the propane/butane mix. The “fullness” of the tank is done by weight or volume using an OPD (overfill protection device). The “fullness” should be determined by weight, but frequently is done by volume using the OPD as the guide.

	TANK REFILLS To refill and keep your existing tank, you have several options: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Cruiser Organized Propane-run: Contact Benjamin @ +507-6090-6006 He has a team which collects tanks from all over the city, gets them filled and returns them. Be sure to put your boat name on your tank for identification purposes! If the tank appears to be rotten it will not be accepted by the propane plant for filling. 2. Take a taxi to Chilibre (around 1h round trip). There is both a Tropigas and a Panagas outlet in the town of Chilibre. You will not be allowed inside the facility. Take your tank to the main gate and wait there for the invoice and for the tank to be returned. As of 2022, a 20lb tank costs $16 to refill. Expect the taxi trip to be about $30 to $35 round trip. 3. Call Oliver Yacht Services (under “Canal-Agents”). Will pick up gas bottles and fuel tanks, have them filled and deliver them back same or next day. 4. Leave your tank at either the the Panama City Tropigas (located at the intersection of Transistmica and Tumba Muerto across from the national brewery) or the Panagas location on Via Simon Bolivar) for them to send the tank to Chilibre for filling. Will take 2-4 days before your tank is available for pickup. (Be aware that filled gas tanks are not allowed on public transportation.) NEW TANKS: At the Tropigas location (on Tumba Muerto near Transistmica) you can purchase new tanks, some propane supplies or swap your existing standard tank for a refilled tank. They sell also adapters, hoses and fiberglass-propane cylinders [check the manufacture-date!] ($85 USD 5kg/11lb full in 04/2017). Novey's in Albrook also carries fiberglass tanks (at a higher price). New steel tanks are available at Novey's's (under “Hardware”) and Pricesmart (under “Grocery Store, Big Box”). These are typically 20 lb. painted tanks although you might be able to find an aluminum tank at the Tropigas location. Local tanks are aluminum, but come with a fitting not typically used by boaters. NOTE ON TANK FITTINGS: There are 3 types of compression fittings that attach to a propane tank (1) U.S., (2) European and (3) The one that's neither of the above. The U.S. ones use a POL (Prest-O-Lite) / bull nosed fitting that has left handed threads (i.e., screw left to fasten). If you need to change fittings: purchase a local fitting with a hose barb, cut off the old end, stick the new fitting on the hose and clamp it, then do a soap test under pressure.

Transportation – Buses & Subway	BUSES Useful APP from the Transit Authority = MiBus Panama Within Panama City: METRO BUSES www.mibus.com.pa There is one Metro bus route on the causeway, route C850. It goes from the bus stop across from the Flamenco Marina, along the causeway, into Balboa (with stops close to Niko's Cafe, Balboa Dental Clinic, Islamorada Charts, ACP office to start the paperwork for a transit) and then continues to the terminal at Albrook Mall (see below). For all other routes, go to the web page noted above or download the MIBUS App. Metro Cards Metro Bus DRIVERS CARRY NO CASH AND FARE CANNOT BE PAID IN CASH. You must purchase a metro card which looks and is used like a debit card. Try to buy a “3-Way Card which can be used for both the bus and the subway. The card costs $2 to purchase. You then add money to (“recargar”) the card and the fare will be deducted from the card when you ride the bus. Several people can use the same card, each person swiping and then handing the card off to someone else. Ask on the VHF morning net if someone has a spare card and leave your card with someone if you leave the country and do not need it anymore. Easiest is to buy the card at the Main Terminal next to Albrook Mall. Money can be added to existing cards at the bus terminals and at some kiosks around town. There is a machine near the Duty Free in Flamenco and one at Balboa Yacht Club Restaurant where you can add money to your card, as well in each Metro-Subway-station. When you get on the bus, press the card against the reader and your fare will be deducted. If you plan to transfer to another bus, also swipe the card on the reader at the exit door. This will give you 45

	minutes to transfer onto another bus for free. Note that if you use one card for several people, only one person will get the transfer credit. Transfer credits only apply on the bus, there are no transfer credits between the bus and the subway. Company policy is that you can catch the bus only at designated bus stops. Look for the orange and white Metro Bus sign. EXCEPTION ON BUS STOPS: On the causeway, you can try to flag the bus down (unlikely). To stop the bus to get off, press one of the buttons by the seats before the stop you want. FARES: Fares are typically 25 cents. However, some metro bus routes originate outside of the city and, as a result will have a higher fare. Example: The “Corridor Sur-Albrook” bus will go to Albrook Mall, but because it originated a long distance outside the city the fare will be $1.25 instead of 25 cents. Generally, any bus with either “Corridor Sur” or “Corridor Norte” will have come from outside the city. When in doubt, ask! There are two bus terminals cruisers commonly use: Terminal at Albrook Mall Metro buses from the Causeway (La Calzada de Amador) go to the terminal at Albrook Mall. They are signed Amador – Albrook (www.mibus.com.pa/albrook-amador). The Metrobus is scheduled to run each 30 minutes in the morning, then hourly but timing is flexible to say the least. Allow 20-30 minutes between the causeway and the terminal. Where the bus drops you off at Albrook Mall (close to the mall’s “Tigre” exit) is where you pick it up again to return to the Causeway. They are supposed to run between 08:00 to 20:00 or even later. Fare between the Causeway and Albrook Mall is 25 cents. (Albrook Mall has pharmacies, a Super99 Grocery Store, many clothing stores, a Do-It Center in the mall and a Novey’s in the parking lot, Novey’s and Do-It Center hardware stores, also a movie theater, food courts, cell phone shops, etc.) When arriving at the the metro bus station in Albrook Terminal the mall is on the left side, and on the right is the terminal with ticket offices and the bridge to the subway and the long distance buses (e.g. to Colon, Boquette, Costa Ricam etc.). Terminal Marañon Located close to Cinco de Mayo, near the older area of town. (In walking distance to Fish Market, the Walking Street, Casco Viejo.) If you disembark in this area from one Metro bus you can transfer to another without paying an additional fare. Outside of this area, if you get off one Metro Bus but think you will be boarding another within 45 minutes, pass your card through the machine before you disembark and your payment/transfer will remain on your card for 45 minutes. SUBWAY: The Panama Metro www.elmetropanama.com ROUTES: www.elmetrodepanama.com/pdf/LineaUno.pdf The subway runs from the main subway terminal by Albrook Mall to the east side of the city. To use the subway you need to purchase a special “3-way” card like the Metro Bus card described above. This 3-way card can be used on BOTH the Metro Buses, the Metro Subway as well as any other public transportation area which requires a fee (e.g., the bathrooms in the terminal). These cards can be purchased at marked kiosks in the Albrook Terminal. Subway fares are $0.35 per ride. Especially during rush hour it can be much faster to use the subway rather than a bus. There is currently only one line. The line to the Tocument International Airport (PTY) is under construction as of this edition of the guide. Diablo Rojo & Colectivo Buses Diablo Rojos (old U.S. school buses, often ingeniously decorated) are no longer allowed for routes within Panama City (as of 15 March, 2013). There are some exceptions and when they appear in the city you can catch a bus to the Albrook Terminal. To stop the bus, yell very loud “parada” (pronounced pah-rah-dah). White or yellow vans that hold 12 to 25 people are known as “colectivos”. There are colectivos which go between the causeway (the road by the anchorages) and Plaza Cinco de Mayo. These cater to local workers, however, and so will be more frequent early in the morning or late in the afternoon. Look for the sign “Cinco de Mayo” or “Calidonia” in the window. Once at Cinco de Mayo, you can transfer to most any other bus in the city. Again, these local vans are more frequent early in the morning or late in the afternoon. THE RED “HOP ON HOP OFF” BUSES The double decker red buses are run by a private company and have a circular route with only a few stops. The stops are: Multicentro Mall, Calle 52, Parque Urraca, Albrook Mall, Miraflores Locks, Biomuseo on Causeway (still under construction), Isla Flamenco (at end of the causeway) and Casco Antiquo. Tickets for adults are $29 and can be purchased at any bus stop. For more info, see www.citysightseeingpty.com
Transportation – Taxis & UBER	Uber Transportation is available in Panama. The best way to avoid the “gringo” tax. Uber App will work on your smart phone, regardless of what country it was first set up in www.uber.com/cities/panama-city/ TAXIS Taxis in Panama do not have meters. Instead they have a Taxi Zone Chart, which is basically a map of the city and surrounding areas marked up into zones and sub-zones. Your fare is supposed to depend on how many zones/sub-zones you travel through to get to your destination and how many passengers are in the taxi. The cab

	driver is required by law to carry a copy of the Taxi Zone Chart and show it to you if asked to do so. To see the currently published Taxi rates, go to: http://www.transito.gob.pa/ Scroll down and to the right click on: Tarifas de Taxis. But note that no taxi driver appears to follow the published and legal rates and even the government recommends you negotiate the rate in advance. Expect most taxis to try to apply a “Gringo” or “Tourist” surcharge. Always negotiate a fare in advance. You should never have to pay more than $5 during regular daylight hours. If you have many errands to run, hire the taxi by the hour. Again, negotiate the price – usually $10 to $15 per hour. Below are taxi drivers familiar with cruiser needs (such as where the stores we typically use are located). Many of them speak English as well as Spanish and can act as a translator for you. For each of these reasons, it should be acceptable to pay more for their services than for a taxi one just picks out at random on the street. These drivers will also negotiate an hourly rate which may, in the long run, prove to be more cost effective than jumping from one taxi to another during a long shopping and/or provisioning day. Some taxi drivers have a PriceSmart card which will enable you access for shopping. (For more info on PriceSmart, see Groceries, Big Box Stores) Typical hourly rate is $10 to $12. If you wish to just catch the first taxi you see, you will get a better fare if you walk a small distance away from a major hub. (For example, walk down the causeway a small distance rather than standing in front of one of the anchorage dinghy docks.) If you use a taxi driver you do not know, never leave anything in the taxi for even a short moment (such as a run into an ATM machine). It is also a good idea, to make a note of the taxi number in case there are issues. Negotiate your price before entering the taxi. Common Cruiser Taxis Alfonso 68009139. Things To Do and See In and Around Panama City That Are Free or Not Too Expensive

by S/V Wadda

There is a heap of things to see in Panama City and beyond: the country is so much more than a canal, and we urge people to get out, see the country, meet the people before heading off to other places. There are all sorts of ways to spend your money in Panama. There are all sorts of tours available. It is possible to see a lot of the country using public transport (which is very reasonably priced, and safe in our opinion) and self guided.

With internet access readily available to give updated information we list here general ideas for your consideration. If something looks interesting check it out on the internet.

Panama Canal Related

1. Panama Canal / Transoceanic Museum www.cascoviejo.com/canal-museum www.museodelcanal.com
The Canal Museum is located in Cathedral Square, Casco Antiguo. It is a very impressive museum, beautifully laid out. Most of the explanations are in Spanish, but you can rent tape players that give explanations in other languages. It is about a 15 minute walk from Plaza Cinco de Mayo. To get there by public transport, take the Metro to the 5 de Mayo station. Then walk up the walking street all the way to the top (past the small Machetazo) till you get to a small tree lined plaza with a rotunda in the middle and a church on your right. Cross over the road, the road splits in two, take the left fork, which is still Avenida Central, and then walk till you reach Cathedral Plaza. The Cathedral has two white towers, darkish facade. The Canal Museum is the grey building on the right side of the plaza.
2. Miraflores Locks and Visitors Centre
See ships transit the canal, another very good museum, in Spanish and English. Open every day of the year. You can get there by Metro Bus C810-Albrook from the Albrook Terminal. Get off at the "Esclusas Miraflores" stop. (See "Transportation – Buses and Subway")
3. Old Panama Canal Administration Building
The somewhat austere/imposing building on top of the hill in Balboa. In its rotunda (not visible from the street), are 4 large murals depicting various stages of the canal construction, plus sketch drawings on the floor level. It's another way to appreciate what a monumental undertaking the construction of the canal was. Open during the week, admission is free. To get there by public transport: take the bus from the causeway and get off at the "Teatro Balboa" stop. Walk towards the post office and follow the wide avenue with the Admin Bldg on the hill in front of you. Note that the tree lined grassy area is the exact size of a canal lock. Admire the Goethals fountain, then walk up the steps. Admire the view from the top of the steps. Now go around to the back of the building (which is the operational front of the building), and enter through the doors. Tell the security guard you'd like to see the murals and they will point you ahead. When you are finished, you can walk through the Balboa neighborhood around Ancon hill into town (say, 20-30 mins)
4. Mosaics on Building Facade on Avenida Central
Free, you just have to see them. On your way along Avenida Central walking street, you can see glimpses of what a desirable address Avenida Central once was. One building has three panels of mosaics/tiled scenes depicting the Spanish conquest, the canal construction, and a boat transiting a lock. Proceed along Avenida Central, it will be intersected by the road that comes down from Todo DelCue ro. There is a bank on the corner, next to the bank is a 'Burbujas' store, it has a large tropical fish as its logo. Above the Burbujas signage are the tiled scenes, a bit faded now, but very cool when you first notice them.
5. Panama Canal Railway (Panama City to Colon) www.panarail.com
Not necessarily cheap, but interesting, particularly if you have been to the museums, and/or read 'The Path Between The Seas,' and can appreciate the effort involved in building not just the Canal, but the railroad before it. The train has one tourist car, with an observation deck at the end. The train departs Panama in the early morning and returns late in the afternoon, one trip/day unless there is a cruise ship in town. There is no bus stop convenient to the station. Best to take a taxi. If you do not want to spend the day in Colon (and it is not a tourist destination to say the least), take a taxi from the train station to the Colon bus station and bus back to Panama City. Alternatively, have a taxi take you out to see Portobello (described below).

Spanish Colonial History and Folklore

1. Panama Viejo, www.panamaviejo.org
World Heritage Site; the site of the first Spanish settlement on the Pacific coast, dates from 1519, destroyed 1671 by the pirate Henry Morgan at which time the residents picked up shop and moved the entire city to a more defensible location, now called Casco Antiguo (see next entry). What's left of the buildings are crumbling ruins, however, after years of neglect, the government is making efforts to restore and preserve the area. Of particular interest is the 4 story Watchtower (a Panamanian icon) and part of a convent cathedral that have been partially restored. It's a nice park like setting that runs along the water front. The museum, in Spanish and English, has some interesting pre-Colombian artifacts (the upper floor is the more interesting) The museum and site have a small entrance fee. To get there by public transport, catch the I202 Via Isreal-Veranillo bus at the Albrook terminal and get off at the Entrada Cincuentenario stop. This is usually a 30-45 minute ride depending on traffic. (See Transportation-Buses and Subway)
2. Casco Viejo, www.cascoviejo.com/official-office-of-casco-viejo
World Heritage Site The site of the town built after the pirate Henry Morgan sacked Panama Viejo. Dates from 1670s. The office of Casco Antiguo has free guided walking tours, in English. Refer to the website for specific details on times and meeting location. The tour was great and gave a very good overview of the old town, plus guidelines on where it's safe to walk and where you want to avoid. We returned later for photos. There are events in Casco Antiguo all the time: the National Theater has regular performances (some free), there is a flea market and cultural presentation (folk dancing) about every other Sunday afternoon in Cathedral Plaza, there are concerts in the various church ruins. If we go at night, we go by public transport and return by taxi. See the write up for the canal museum on the previous page for public transportation info.
Another way to experience Casco Antiguo is through the Casco Antiguo Spanish School. cascospanish.com/portfolio-items/fortaleza-ex-gang-member-tour/ Led by graduates of Esparanza S.F, a gang intervention and reintegration program, this unforgettable tours takes you through what used to be the heart of gang territory in the former “Ciudad de Dios.” Today, it’s been converted into a tour area and open-air food court, hosting both locals and visitors from around the world.
3. Mi Pueblito <https://www.myguidepanama.com/things-to-do/mi-pueblito>
At the base of Ancon hill, 3 re-constructed villages: Spanish colonial, Afro-Caribbean, and Kuna. It is free to walk around, or you can have a guide. At times there are dance performances on the weekend for a few dollars. Check for events on their webpage. We went to a dance recital with the audience the family members of the young performers: mums, dads, siblings, grannies. There really is no convenient way to get here by public transportation.
4. Beyond Panama City: Portobelo
Located on the Caribbean side of Panama, Portobello is another World Heritage Site. It is an 18th century fort which received, stored and then forwarded on the gold stolen from the Incas in Peru. You can learn about this city by reading its entry in Wikipedia. You can see what it has to offer by reading entries in Trip Advisor. One way to see this city is to take the Canal Railroad train from Panama City to Colon and then hire a taxi to take you out to Protobello and return you to the train in time for the return trip back to Panama City. This is not a cheap option, but it is an option.
5. Beyond Panama City: El Valle
Easily accessible by bus (appx 2.5 hour ride) from the Albrook Terminal, El Valle is a small village built in the base of an extinct volcano. Cool temperature, but not chilly, and not as humid as the coast. Walks in the rain forest, petroglyphs, orchids, birds, zoo with great frog display, including the golden frog (another Panamanian symbol), waterfall, and a turbid thermal pool. Quiet and relaxing, recommend a mid week visit rather than weekends although, on the weekends there is a rather large farmers market for locally grown plants and produce.
6. Beyond Panama City: The town of Las Tablas
Located in the Azuero peninsula holds the Mil Pollera parade in November – well worth the 5 hour bus trip to get there. Las Tablas is also a big town for carnival, plus various other Spanish cultural heritage events during the year (see The Visitor magazine). Also look up Las Tablas on Trip Advisor. Las Tablas is accessible by bus from the Albrook Terminal (see “Transportation-Buses and Subway” in the guide.)

7. Beyond Panama City: Santa Fe

Smaller than El Valle, in the province of Veraguas. Also in an extinct volcano (but not as obvious as El Valle). There is a coffee cooperative there with an interesting history. Walking, bird watching, swimming, relaxing. Chilly at night in December. To get there by public transport: take the Santiago bus from the Albrook Terminal and change buses in Santiago (same terminal, but around the back) for Santa Fe. The road from Santiago up to Santa Fe is very scenic as you cross rivers and climb into the mountains.

Biodiversity – on the Causeway in Panama City

1. Biomuseo Panama <https://www.biomuseopanama.org/>

Designed by world-renowned architect Frank Gehry, the Biomuseo is his only work in Latin America and the tropics. It is a great introduction to the bio-history of Panama.

2. Smithsonian Tropical Research Institute at Punta Culebra <https://stri.si.edu/>

Very conveniently located to boats anchored at Las Brisas or La Playita. Admission $1- $3. All the interpretive signs are in Spanish and English, and is very family friendly, catering in particular to school aged children. There is a short walking trail, and tanks with marine life. Check out the remnant rail track from when Punta Culebra was part of the Fort Grant complex. If you walk along the parking lot from La Playita beside the Smithsonian Road at sunset, look carefully in the trees as you will quite likely see sloths actively searching for food. You might see them curled up in a ball in the tree branches during the day, but if you want to see them on the move, sunset and later is the time to do it.

Biodiversity – Elsewhere in Panama City

1. Walk Up Ancon Hill

A cool retreat from the city, good views from the top, you may see some interesting birds, critters, and plants on the way. Free! This would be a good place to see the sunrise, however the road is only open sunrise to sunset. Picnic area at top. There is no easy public transportation to this area. Take a taxi to Mi Pueblito and then hike up from there.

2. Parque Natural Metropolitano www.parquemropolitano.org/

There are about 2 hours of easy walking trails, small entry fee, opens at 6am. Best chance to see animals is to go early in the morning, and be quiet while you walk. You can get there by taxi or, catch the M481 Juan Pablo II-Tumba Muerto-ZP La Siesta bus from the Albrook Terminal and get off at the Casa de la Juventud stop. The park also offers guided night tours. Check their web page for activities. If it has been raining be sure to wear shoes good for mud!

Biodiversity – Gamboa Region

NOTE: The Gamboa area is located close to the San Miguel locks of the canal. It is not readily accessible by public transportation but has many worthwhile places to visit. You can rent a car and explore or contact one of the following organizations and they might be able to arrange transportation or offer updated transportation information.

1. Parque Nacional Soberania

Google this park and you can get lots of information. The park is located a few miles from the Gamboa Rain Forest Resort.

2. Pipeline Road

Located within Soberania Park, and starts a couple of miles beyond Gamboa. It is famous as a bird watching place, but also monkey, butterflies, plants. The earlier you get there the better; take water

3. Rain forest Discovery Centre <https://www.pipelineroad.org/>

An ecotourism and environmental education project administered by the Fundación Avifauna Eugene Eisenmann, of which the objective is the conservation of birds through environmental sustainability. Check out their web page for current activities and events. Contact them for best options to visit

4. Summit Park (Parque Municipal Summit)

A botanical garden and a zoo of 250 hectares in total area, located at about kilometer 18 on the road leading to Gamboa. If you want to see a Harpy Eagle (Panama national bird), then this is the place to go...you may see them in the wild, but good luck with that. Also tapir, jaguar, king vultures (stunning), peccaries (friendly), toucans (up close!), macaws, and monkeys. Park like setting, good place for kids to run around.

5. Camino de Cruces Trail www.caminandopanama.org/en/11-central-y-azuero/45-sendero-los-helechos

Within Camino de Cruces National Park. Walk along part of the old mule trail, used to transport gold from Peru across the isthmus of Panama to Portobello. The trail was established before Panama Viejo was established: it was built with river stones over a preexisting indigenous trail through the rain forest. For us (S/V Wadda), this was the highlight of our rain forest walks; combining rain forest and history. It was the most challenging of our walks, and we were a bit grubby at the end as the track was muddy and slippery in places, and we had to ford a shallow river. If you like walking, I would highly recommend this trail. We found a useful sketch map at the Canopy Tower web page.

More things to do, from sv Taitonga (2017):

Day trip to an Indian village in the Gatun Lake, cost about $100 USD per person (received very good feedback from 3 boats in 2016)

Daytrip to the island Barro Colorado in the Gatun Lake with a nature guide from the Smithsonian Tropical Research Institute, roundabout 160 USD per person.

Great fun for 4 boats (with and without kids) in march 2017!

Attend a concert in the National Theater in Casco Antiguo

Weather Forecasting, Tides, Navigation, Hazards from SY Taitonga (2017)

When you arrive from the Caribbean be aware of a tidal range up to 6m/20ft (often below mean low spring water) with the according currents!

Especially in the Darien and between the Islands of the Las Perlas the currents on high tidal ranges can get stronger than maybe your boat can motor!

Going from La Playita across the canal entrance south towards Taboga you are requested to contact Flamenco Signal station on VHF12 to asked permission to cross the canal channel (They take this very seriously!)

There are plenty of plastic pieces and plastic bags in the water so be prepared to un-foul your propeller and to check your water intake/-outtake. The higher the tides are running the higher is the amount of trash and logs in the water.

Neither the OpenCPN-CM93-Charts nor Navionics are precise enough to navigate safely the Las Perlas. => see Bauhaus in Charts/Cruising Guides

The weather forecasts below are not always very accurate for Panama-City and Las Perlas but can give you some hints to make your own guesses..

Tides Balboa

<https://www.pancanal.com/eng/op/tide-tables.html> see also “Navigation and -hazards”

There are mainly two seasons:

Dryseason - from about mid-december to about end of march: hot and mostly northerly 10-20knot winds, nearly no rain and rarely clouds.

Wetseason – the rest of the year: very hot and humid - mainly wind from the south or north with up to around 10 knots or nearly no wind from all directions or ugly squalls with sometimes 40+ knots.

Some really nice days and some grey in grey with much rain (depending on your raincatcher it is possible to fill the tank in less than an hour). Sometimes it is hard to get power into the batteries or get the washing dry!

Bad weather is often related to Tropical Waves and the Moonson Trof (ITCZ).

The flag on Ancon-hill can be used as an indicator for wind and shifts in the vicinity of the PC-Anchorage.

It is a good idea to carry an umbrella with you in town and close the hatches while off the boat.

Squalls occur mostly in the afternoon before dark (so many run their errands in the morning!), but some really ugly ones took place at 08:00 (took 2015 half a dozen boats on the rocks) or during early dark. Some are only wind, but mostly quite some rain, so you sometimes can not see your neighbours boat (turn on the anchorlight!), sometimes accompanied with vicious lightning. They can last 20 minutes (lucky!) or a couple of hours.

Because they can come anytime from every direction, make 100%-shure your anchor is set and you have at least 50-60m chain out !!! The waves will build up within 10-15 minutes high and steep!

You are outside the hurrican-belt (except 2016!) - welcome to the thunder-and-lightning-belt:

Thunderstorms are normally local events with a diameter of a couple of miles (but sometimes all over Panama) and occur often at the boarder between mainland and sea. The thunder can make you deaf for a couple of minutes. Quite some boats get hit by lightningstrikes – direct or even indirect, and loose some electronics (you might want to check your insurance-policy).

Beaching in Panama City & Las Perlas Islands

(Source: SY Taitonga, Alubat Ovni395)

Conditions of the beach and currents will change very much with the season of the year, as well with neap or spring tide. We avoid beaching during the passing of a Tropical Wave!

Check the beach and currents carefully a day before beaching: Around 1.5 hours after high water for your desired beaching-location AND at low water for placing the stern anchor as well the walking distance to the water at low tide if you need water for your work.

PANAMA-CITY:

La Playita-side: Some boats have beached near the bridge of the Americas on the east side, where the working boats and big boats are slower, so swell is reduced, but still exists! Feedback is mixed! It is prohibited.

Las Brisas-side: It looks like there is a good location for beaching a bit north of the Bio Museum, protected against northerly winds. (04/2017) But it is prohibited.

TABOGA (7nm south of Flamenco) (we consider this the easiest location for beaching near Panama-City – depending on the wind/swell!!!)

The beach open to the north: The northeast-corner has a nice slowly rising sand bottom; only stones near the island, but very exposed to northerly winds and then not suitable! No officials showed up, but you might want to refrain from cleaning the bottom if there are many tourists (December to February and weekends).

The beach open to the southeast is restricted to the swimmers and kids and marked by buoys, so you can not beach here. It might be possible to beach east of the jetty as well - check first.

LAS PERLAS (from N to S) (there are plenty of other possible locations)

Casaya / Ampon

Ampon has a nice, little beach on the east-side. Sand with shell fragments (good for sanding the bottom) as well as a plateau with fine sand. At low water there are plenty of stones, so pick your place carefully. The stern anchor might have to be replaced due to the stones. No current.

Casaya South

The middle of the beach is more of a plateau, but has plenty of little stones in the sands. It looks as if there is kind of a water stream coming from the sand. Left of the center; near the reef Taitonga beached at N 08 29.697 / W 079 01.766. Hard sand. No current. The holding for the stern anchor can be a problem if you throw it to early, because the sand beach has a reef bottom at low tide. No current.

Bayonetta

Two sheltered beaches on the southern side of the channel, dividing the two islands. Sand on both with some stones. Good holding for the stern anchor. We preferred the west beach. If you come from the southeast beware of the reef!

Espiritu Santu (eastside of Isla del Ray) (we consider No. 2. the easiest location for beaching in the Perlas)

1. 008 25.8299 N / 078 51.2768 W – On the northern part of the beach, near the stones, bow to the east. Soft sand (it sucked Taitonga about 10-15cm in the ground). No stones. Good holding for the stern anchor. Sheltered from current and wind, but because you do not know how the current will move in this little bay, you might want to use 2 stern anchors to adjust the angle of the boat towards the beach.

2. 008 25.7636 N / 078 51.2586 W – In the middle of the beach, on the sand spit, where it is possible to let the bow point N or S. Hard sand, one stony patch. Good holding for the stern anchor. Be aware of the currents!
